
EPASP is seeking a Researcher & Content Writer/Editor

Job Description

Position: Researcher & Content Writer/Editor

Location: Cairo

Duration: Three months with possibility for extension

Starting date: March 2018

Reporting to: Project Consultant

Purpose of the job: The Researcher/ Content Writer will support the work of the Communications team in three major work areas; (1) Writing, updating, editing content for websites, (2) Assist in producing text/visual content for other digital or printed publications, (3) Assist with other duties as the supervisor may deem necessary for the success of the project. The ideal candidate will have technical knowledge, writing and editing skills to help translate Protected Areas relevant information into effective online communication, as well be a highly productive, deadline oriented, self-starting and creative member of the team.

Required Qualifications & Experience:

- Minimum requirement is a bachelor degree in Media Studies, Journalism, Mass Communication, or a relevant field. Preferred requirement is a masters degree in a relevant field.
- Demonstrated strong writing and editing skills and attention to detail.
- Superior English and Arabic-language skills.
- Computer skills: MS Office applications and Web research.

To Apply: Interested applicants must submit their CV to info@epasp.org